

“Rim Rock Quest”

This quest is an adventure for the family,

Or just for you.

Follow the rhymes for Rim Rock,

And find answers to each clue.

Now let’s get started and see how you do.

First you want to find,

The parking lot at Rim Rock, so divine.

It’s off Route 34, then Karber’s Ridge Road.

Use your map, as there is no code.

Park in the shade,

Then a left through the pines on a trail that’s _____laid.

Arriving at the bridge, stay on the_____.

Now go down the _____,hold the rail.

Past remnants of a stone wall,

The history maybe not be known to all.

Native Americans built long ago,

For protection, is what we know.

On a lower _____, dirt under your feet,
Sandstone rock formations over-head are neat.
Hardwood trees replace the pines.
Make sure not to touch three leaves on vines.

Continuing on the path you know,
Depending on rain, a _____ to your left will flow.
The formation "the Pounds" is ahead, you should go,
An old English term meaning "some sort of enclosure,"
You can relax here, no need for composure,
____ _ was your fate,
So go ahead and celebrate!